

Historic Stonington Volunteer Opportunities

December 7, 2023

We are currently seeking volunteers!

If you've ever had the desire to jump into the pages of a history book, now's your chance. Historic Stonington is looking for passionate individuals to join our team of dedicated volunteers. Volunteers will bring educational history to life from classrooms to the streets of Stonington Borough and work alongside staff and interns to educate the public on how our collective histories inform our present moments.

Volunteer activities may include:

- Assisting with research in the Woolworth Library
- Guiding walking tours of Stonington Borough
- Visiting Elementary school classrooms as an educator
- Assisting the staff with programs and events
- Acting as a docent in the Captain Nathaniel Palmer House and Lighthouse Museum

We encourage volunteers of all ages to apply. If this sounds like the right fit for you or someone you know, please forward your resume to Aaron Lord, Museum Manager at museums@historicstonington.org. In the email, please include what sort of activities you are interested in working on – library/archives, events, fundraising, small projects, etc.

Thank you!
